Joining fee waived for members of other similar associations who join the Sydney Audio Club prior to 31 December 2007.

Objectives (as lodged with the NSW Office of Fair Trading):

The objectives of the Sydney Audio Club Incorporated (SAC) are to provide a forum for high fidelity audio and music enthusiasts:

- To meet regularly in a social setting to discuss and share an interest in music and its high quality recording and reproduction;
- To share enjoyment and knowledge of music and its reproduction amongst the membership and with the broader community in a variety of venues including private homes, professional establishments and live performances;
- To foster and to increase awareness and knowledge of the technical aspects influencing the recording and reproduction of music, including development and modification of audio equipment;
- To establish and promote good relations and exchange of information with other similar groups and societies;
- As a community based society the SAC will contribute to the general community through support for selected charity and community based organisations and other initiatives;
- The SAC aims to be independent of and impartial towards any specific commercial interests in the music and audio industries.

Values and principles:

In pursuing the above objectives, we adhere to the following values and principles:

- We value our members and their differing opinions and interests;
- We provide a non-judgmental forum for the sharing of our hobby;
- We are respectful and tolerant of other peoples views
- We expect opinions to be shared in a gentle and constructive manner;
- We listen actively without disturbing others enjoyment;
- We appreciate the efforts of others and work constructively together to achieve the Club's objectives.
